METHODIST HOLD RETREAT IN LYNCHBURG TOMORROW

A day-apart, Spiritual Life Retreat for the Lynchburg District, Women's Society of Christian Service, will be held at Fairview Methodist Church, Lynchburg, Friday, Jan. 22, beginning at 10 A. M. through 1:30 P. M. Bring lunch.

The president of the Lynchburg District, Mrs. A. P. Petrjohn, will be leading the Day-Apart Meditations. Mrs. O. W. Martin, Jr., is Spiritual Life Secretary for the Lynchburg District.

MEMORIAL METHODIST CHURCH ACTIVITIES

The Annual School of Missions continues each Sunday evening with growing interest and attendance. The Fellowship Covered-Dish Supper Sunday evening at 6 o'clock will be sponsored by the Methodist Youth Fellowship, Joan Martin, president. Let families come and enjoy the fellowship together around the table.

At 6:45 P. M. three separate Study, Discussion and Handwork sessions will be conducted. For the adults, Mr. Lewis Motley will present the third section of the Missionary Study Text — "Medical Missions" — dealing especially with the healing work in India, Southeast Asia, Korea, Okinawa, and Latin America. Every member of the church and visitors are welcome, and urged to be present for this inspiring study.

For the youth, Rev. Daneel LeReaux, Principal of the Pamplin Elementary School, will be the guest leader. Mr. LeReaux, born in the Southeast of Africa, will bring a fresh and challenging message on this "Rapidly-Becoming-Light" Continent of the world. All youth of the church are especially urged to attend.

For the children, Mrs. J. N. Jennings will lead an interesting presentation of work among the children of Africa and other mission fields. Parents are urged to have their children attend these interesting and informative sessions for the Juniors and Third Year Primaries.

The Evening Worship Service will feature music by the Men's Chorus. The pastor will present the third in the series of Methodist Missions—describing with the use of visual aids the work carried on in Central America, especially in Panama and Costa Rica. These countries just to the south of the United States are possibly the most fertile fields for missionary work in our generation; for we must help to unite in a more permanent way the two Americas by the bond of Christian Devotion and mutual experience. You are invited to bring others with you for the evening service, which lasts only 45 minutes and is characterized by the singing of the great missionary hymns of the church. You will profit spiritually by hearing the Men's Chorus.

BRENDA ANN JEFFERSON

The death of Brenda Ann Jefferson, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cary James Jefferson of Amherst, occured at 8:45 P. M. Wednesday at Virginia Baptist Hospital. Her death was caused by acute leukemia.

Brenda was in the seventh grade at Amherst Elementary School. Until illness curtailed her activities, she was a member of the Junior Choir and the Girl's Auxiliary of Amherst Baptist Church.

She also played clarinet in the Amherst Elementary School Band, and she belonged to the Girl Scouts. She had attended the Floyd Ward School of Dancing for seven years, and she was a piano pupil of Mrs. Lawrence G. Nelson at Sweet Briar.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by a younger sister, Carey Pamela Jefferson; her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Faber B. Jefferson, Red House; her maternal grandfather and step-grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Carter, Appomattox; and her great-grandmother, Mrs. John T. Jefferson, Danville.

The funeral service will be held at 3 P. M. Friday, at Liberty Baptist Church, with burial at Liberty Cemetery.

MRS. WILLIAM A. MOON

Mrs. Mattie Ethel Martin Moon, 70, of Spout Spring, died at 3:10 A. M. Tuesday in Memorial Hospital in Lynchburg after a long illness. She was the wife of William Archer Moon. She was born in Appomattox County June 5, 1889, daughter of the late Luther Elbert and Lewis Ann Brooks Martin. In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons, the Rev. W. A. Moon, Jr., of Franktown, and Roy A. Moon, of Roanoke; one daughter, Miss Margaret Moon of Spout Spring; six grandchildren, three brothers, John Martin, J. Allen Martin and W. Edell Martin, all of Spout Spring, and one sister, Mrs. D. H. Cyrus of Spout Spring.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 4 P. M., conducted by Rev. Kyle Kelly, from the Salem Methodist Church, of which she was a member. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Active Pallbearers were Winston Martin, Norman Jones, Clarence Carson, Pete Dickerson, George Shirey and Bobby Thomas.

FOILED!

Bowling Green, Ky. — When he sank a well to get water, W. C. Dumbrowski drilled down 145 feet and struck oil instead. Geologists said there probably was not enough oil to pay off commercially, although it was a fairly good grade oil.

They advised Dumbrowski to sink another well, and maybe this time he would hit water.
